DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement filed 3/30/2001 and 4/3/2002 has been placed in the application file, and the information referred to therein has been considered as to the merits.

Drawings

3. The drawings, filed on 3/30/2001, have been approved by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

5. Claims 1-6, and 8-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by

Kawakami et al. (US 6,432,585.)

Art Unit: 1745

The instant claims are to a positive electrode material comprising a coated metal core of Sb, Bi, Cd, In, Pb, Ga, Sn, or an alloy thereof. In a preferred embodiment, the metal or alloy is of tin. The metal core coating is of a hydroxide or oxyhydroxide, which has been converted to an oxide.

Kawakami et al. (US 6,432,585) teaches an electrode including a coated metal core of tin or an alloy. The tin core is coated with a layer of tin oxide (see col. 19, line 50 to col. 20, line 45.) The material has an average particle size of 0.5 to 60 μm (see the claims.) The tin grain host material may include one or more materials. The material may be further coated with one or more layers of oxides of Sn, In, Zn or Ni. (see claim 45, for example.) The materials are used in an electrochemical cell, (throughout.) The material may be used in a battery as a positive or negative electrode depending on the state of charge of the battery.

The reference does not teach the material to be an oxide converted from hydroxide or oxyhydroxide; however, as the product is an oxide the claims are anticipated.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 7, 13, 14, 15, and 16 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art references do not teach the process for the production of electrodes as provided in claims 7 and 13. Further, the references do not teach the combination of the positive electrodes of claims 14-16 with a cathode of claim 1. Thus, these claims appear to be allowable over the prior art.
